

Young Scientist Best Paper Award

announced by the URSI Italian National Committee

The 2020 Annual Meeting of the URSI Italian National Committee (<http://www.ursi.cnr.it/index.html>) will be held in Rome, on Friday November 27th, 2020 and it will be co-located with the 23rd Riunione Nazionale di Elettromagnetismo (Italian National Meeting on Electromagnetics – RiNEm) (www.elettromagnetismo.it/rinem2020).

A Best Paper Award, named after Prof. Roberto Sorrentino, is announced by the URSI Italian National Committee for Young Scientists researching on topics belonging to all the URSI Commissions.

To qualify for the Award the Young Scientist applicant:

- must be less than 35 years old on December 31st, 2020;
- should submit a 3-4 pages paper to the Rome 2020 Meeting of the URSI Italian National Committee, of which she or he is the principal author.

The paper template can be downloaded at <http://www.ursi.cnr.it/Meetings.html>. All Young Scientists applicants must send their paper, their CVs and a list of publications in PDF format to:

Prof. Carlo Carobbi, University of Florence
Email: carlo.carobbi@unifi.it

Prof. Giuliano Manara, University of Pisa
Email: giuliano.manara@unipi.it by the following deadline: September 30th, 2020. An acknowledgement will be issued.

The Italian URSI Young Scientist Program Committee will examine all the applications and select three finalists. The YSP Committee will notify all the YS applicants of the review results by e-mail. Within 10 days from the notification, every finalist must confirm that she/he will attend the meeting. The list of the finalists will be announced on the Italian URSI website (<http://www.ursi.cnr.it/index.html>).

The oral presentations of the three finalists are scheduled in the afternoon of November 27th, 2020 and will be evaluated by the Italian URSI YSP Committee. All the finalists will receive an Honorary Mention and the winner will be awarded with a 500€ prize during the closing ceremony of RiNEm 2020 held on the late afternoon of the same day.

All the three finalists will be invited to submit an extended version of their papers to the URSI Radio Science Bulletin.
